LEWISBURG, Tenn., Feb. 18.—Earl Collins and Lee Powell made their escape from the county jail here Saturday night. Collins was held on default of bond on several charges, and Powell was serving a sentence for larceny. The escaped prisoners have so far not been heard from, though Sheriff Endsley is making a strong effort to recapture them.

QUEER THINGS

ABOUT IMPORTS AND EXPORTS OF UNITED STATES—ANOMALIES ARE SHOWN.

Cotton From Abroad Despite Big Supply Raised—Copper Also Brought In

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Apparently champagne drinking in the United States is on the wane. Both the quantity and value of that beverage imported into this country last year were less than in the preceding one and no greater than a dozen years ago.

This is only one of several surprising features of a statement issued today by the Bureau of Statistics on the "ebb and flow of the commerce of the United States in 1906." The figures show that 394,727 dozen quarts of champagne and other sparkling wines were imported in 1906, valued at $5,855,425, while in the immediate preceding year the number of dozen quarts was 401,514, valued at $5,995,651. Another surprising fact is that while the United States is one of the greatest coffee consuming countries in the world, yet it is actually exporting that product. The exports of domestic products are valued at $3,870,592. This is explained by the fact that the Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands are customs districts of the United States and that their exports to foreign countries are not included with the figures of exports from the various customs districts of this country. In addition 13,500,000 pounds of coffee of foreign production brought into this country was re-exported.

Some Cotton Imported.
Still another curious feature of American commerce is that while this country produces three-fourths of the world's cotton, $11,000,000 worth of that product was imported last year, to say nothing of $1,000,000 worth of waste cotton. This product, however, is of a different quality from that produced in the United States, being of the long and silky fibre, coming principally from Egypt.

While this country is the largest manufacturer of cotton goods, the importation of manufactures of this product aggregate in round figures $69,000,000 in value, which was more than 50 per cent. in excess of the value of these goods exported.

The imports of autos amounted to nearly $5,000,000 in value, but this figure was practically offset by the exports of automobiles, amounting in value to $4,409,186. Of the exports of these machines, $1,000,000 worth went to the United Kingdom, and nearly another $1,000,000 worth to other European countries. Tropical countries also were large purchasers of this class of vehicle.

Much Copper From Abroad.

In the copper industry, although this country produces one-half of the world's copper and is one of the largest exporters of that product, it also is one of the largest importers of that commodity. The value of copper imports in 1906 was over $37,000,000, while the exports of copper amounted to over $90,000,000. This anomaly apparently grows out of the fact that the United States has superior smelting and refining facilities and that the copper from its immediate neighbors at the north and south—Canada and Mexico—flows to its smelting establishments and refineries. The United States, which has steadily reduced its importations of tin plate from more than one billion pounds in the fiscal year 1891 to 127 million in the calendar year 1906, has become an exporter of that article and the exportations of tin plate of domestic manufacture were in 1906, $1,001,688 in value, exclusive of the foreign tin re-exported.

FILES PERSONAL BOND FOR JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

FINDLAY, Ohio, Feb. 19.—J. O. Troup, of Bowling Green, Ohio, one of the attorneys for the Standard Oil Company, this afternoon filed the personal bond of John D. Rockefeller in the sum of $1,000 "for his appearance at the next term of court, and for each succeeding day thereafter until not wanted," to answer to the indictment pending against him in the Hancock county Common Pleas Court. The bond is also signed by James O. Troup and J. C. Donnell.

1,000 SIGNERS TO PETITION.

JACKSON, Tenn., Feb. 13.—The petition of the temperance people asking for a legalized primary of the white voters on the question of surrendering the charter and reincorporating under the Adams law was forwarded tonight to the county representatives at Nashville. There were wanted more than 1,000 signatures to the petition. It is not claimed that the petition is a real test of the vote on the question.

JAPANESE OPPOSE IT

EXCLUSION CLAUSE IN U. S. IMMIGRATION BILL

Creates Strong Dissatisfaction Among the Interested Parties at Tokio, According to Report.

TOKIO, Feb. 19.—The official text of the exclusion bill has been published. As expected, it has created the strongest dissatisfaction among the interested parties, although the movements of procedure have not yet assumed a definite shape.

The Japanese residents of the Hawaiian Islands have telegraphed President Roosevelt and the Hawaiian Representatives in the House, indicating the seriousness of the injury which will be caused to their rights and interests by this legislation. The leaders of opinion here are aware, however, that under the circumstances, the only alternative is to calmly resign themselves to the situation, hoping that the Government can arrange with the American authorities to reduce the sacrifice in the interest of Japanese immigrants to a minimum. They regret the new law, lest the San Francisco people, glorying in their success, should assume an overbearing attitude. News of this kind would only tend to injure Japanese susceptibilities, which President Roosevelt has been especially careful to avoid.

THE MOTHER AND THE GROWING BOY

"A boy's life goes forward by steps and bounds after he passes the nursery stage," writes Margaret E. Stanger in Woman's Home Companion for March. "At least it seems so to his mother. There is the day when his father remonstrates about those babyish curls that are so beautiful, and that the mother twines around her fingers with such care and pride. The boy has begun to hate them, and he goes joyously to the barber's to have them cut off. As the shears separate each soft ringlet, the mother feels as if something precious was severed from her very heart. She gathers them up and lays them away, and as her little lad walks beside her with sturdier step than before she realizes that the coming dawn of his manhood is quickening on the horizon.

There is the day when she sees her boy, a gallant little figure, with his hands in his pockets, looking an inch taller than yesterday, because he is dressed less like a little girl and more like the boy across the street whom he has secretly envied. Those pockets mark an era in boyish development. Are they not distinctively a badge of sex? Surely, considering that a man has fourteen pockets and a woman none at all, the day when the boy first realizes that he has pockets, and that they are to hold whatever he pleases, is a great day for him. The boy has his own happy day, too, when he first puts on a real pair of stout shoes, shoes in which he may run and jump and kick a ball."

FARMERS' MEETING

Large Attendance Of Prominent Farmers From Maury Hear Instructive Talk.

The attendance at the special meeting of the Maury County Farmers' Association in the County Court room Saturday was large, prominent farmers from all parts of the county being present and taking a deep interest in the proceedings.

The speaker of the morning was Prof. Moore of the University of Tennessee, whose subject was "Preservation and Increasing the Fertility of the Soil." Prof. Moore is not only well posted on the theory of agriculture, but his connection with the State Experiment Station at the University has given him most valuable experience, and he handled his subject ably. At the conclusion of his address he offered to explain any point not fully understood or any new point in connection with his subject, his hearers were asked and the discussion which followed was highly valuable.

That afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Prof. Morgan, also of the University of Tennessee discussed "The Growing of Alfalfa on Tennessee Soil."

PISTOL IN A HACK

Is a Concealed Weapon, Says Tennessee Supreme Court.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., February 17.—The Supreme Court yesterday decided that in carrying a pistol under a hack seat or buggy seat a man was just as guilty of carrying concealed weapons as if it were concealed about his person. The law was intended, said the Court, to prevent the carrying around of pistols so that they could be brought into use, either for defensive or offensive purposes.

THE MORTIFICATION OF MOSE.

There is much censure of Jim Sycamore for letting his eighteen-year-old Mose go to school wearing a big red flannel patch on the basement of his trousers. Mose seems much annoyed and keeps his seat most of the times. One of the Bixler girls mortified him much by asking him if he weren't afraid he'd set his seat on fire when he sat down.—Mulberry (Ind.) Independent.

Under No Moral Obligations.

There is no moral obligation on an American community to tax themselves to educate the children of aliens. But if this is done willingly as regards immigrants in general, the exclusion of any particular nationality raises a question of treaty privilege under the most-favored-nation clause that presents a matter that should be dealt with in accord with international law. Every society has a natural right to regulate admission to its membership, and the exclusion of classes or nationalities whose entry is undesirable is an inalienable incident of sovereignty.—Baltimore News.

BONFIRE OF MONEY

Benton County Farmer Burns Up $1,500 in Cold Cash.

BIG SANDY, Tenn., Feb. 18.—Hughie Melton, a farmer living about seven miles from here, suffered a loss of $1,500 yesterday. He has been preparing to leave for Texas for several days, had sold his land and personal property and placed the money in the bank, and a few days ago drew out $1,600 in currency, intending to leave in a few days. He put $100 of this money in a package for use in paying expenses to Texas and the rest he gave to his wife to take care of. She placed it inside of a straw mat, but failed to inform her husband of its whereabouts. In getting ready to pack up the household goods her husband burned it, the $1,500 being consumed at the same time. While this is nearly his entire capital, Mr. Melton is still determined to go to Texas, and says he will leave in a few days.

Why Kings Lie Awake.

A London correspondent says King Edward eats a square meal just before retiring. This closely resembles a claw to the origin of the saying, "Un-sleep lies the head that wears a crown."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
